

FERPA: Consent to Disclose Student Education Records

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) was designed to protect the privacy of a student's education records and to afford students certain rights pertaining to their education records. In accordance with FERPA policy, Mount St Joseph University will disclose education records to third parties only once the student provides written consent.

By signing, you understand and acknowledge that: (1) you have the right not to consent to the release of your education records and (2) this consent shall remain in effect until revoked by you, in writing, and delivered to the Registrar's Office, but that any such revocation shall not affect disclosures made prior to the receipt of any such written revocation. For a full description of rights protected under FERPA, please visit https://registrar.msj.edu/undergraduate\_catalog/student\_rights\_university\_policies/academic\_policies/ferpa.html.
