

"Without having a high-frequency of public transit buses, that means that working person, if they're just 30 seconds late, if they have to wait an hour what that will mean as to whether they will be able to keep their job or not," Harris said.

The nearly $2 billion American Jobs Plan i it persists won't allow the region to become more competitive.

"It has to be cool. It has to be sexy. Everybody should want it," he
S

